Details of the great earthquakes in Western Mexico on Sunday and Monday show that the destruction was great, hundreds of people being killed while the escapes of many were miraculous; the destruction of houses was immense, including buildings supposed to be earthquake proof.——Peace among all peoples was the ideal raised aloft at the closing banquet of the peace congress included the British Ambassador, the Governor-General of Canada, and other distinguished men.——The reports made to the continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, in session at Washington, show that the organization has raised a fund of $250,000 for memorial continental hall at Washington; today a visit will be paid to the tomb of Washington.——Germany is jealous of the approaching meeting of the Kings of England and Italy, and the German press accuses Great Britain of scheming to disrupt the tripple alliance, warning England that "war with Germany would be dangerous for any opponent or coalition of opponents."—Rev. C. F. Aked, of England, arrived in New York yesterday to become pastor of Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, at which John D. Rockefeller worships; he told the newspaper men that it is not Mr. Rockefeller's Church.——Three surviving members of the Mette family in Chicago have again been poisoned and are not expected to live, two members having died at the first poisoning. ——The story sent by telegraph from Greensboro, N. C., that Dr. R. B. Patterson had killed his wife in self-defense was absolutely untrue, having been started by his enemies.——In the suit at Concord, N. H., to secure an accounting for the property of Mrs. Eddy, founder of the Christian Science Church, her lawyers yesterday put in a vigorous answer, denying that she is incompetent to attend to her business affairs and asserting that the litigation was brought by evil-minded persons hostile to Mrs. Eddy, and the religious principles of which she is the founder and exponent.——New York markets: Money on call, easy 2 to 3 per cent.; ruling rate, 2 1-4 to 2 1-2; closing bid, 2 1-4; offered at 2 1-2; spot cotton, 5 points lower; closing quiet at 10.10; flour, steady, but dull; wheat, steady; No. 2 red, 83 3-8 elevator; corn, steady; No. 2, 57 elevator; oats, firm; mixed, 47 1-2; turpentine, steady, 71 to 71 1-2; rosin, steady.

Although you hear little of William Randolph Hearst, it is said he is nevertheless a busy man—again having taken to nursing another Presidential boom.

An expedition is to be sent by the Smithsonian Institution to Alaska to search for fossils. Why not stay in the United States and search for them next year in the political scrap pile?

President Roosevelt may not say so, but probably the National Arbitration and Peace Congress in New York this week looks like a called meeting of women, children and mollycoddles.

President Roosevelt wrote Harriman, "We are practical men." This week the President wrote the peace congress in New York "be practical." Does that mean—be like him and Harriman?

It is now declared that Harry Thaw was practically his own lawyer and insisted on managing his own defense. This is a discovery of new evidence to support District Attorney Jerome in renewing his plea for another insanity commission.

The Philadelphia Press (Rep.) speaks of the Democratic party as "A Confused Party." It's enough to confuse any party to see a large contingent of the Republican party marching back almost close enough to be captured by the Jeffersonian skirmish line.

The Washington Post calls attention to the fact that the Hon. William J. Bryan neglected to go around to the White House when he was in Washington a few days ago. Why should the Nebraskan waste time at the White House? He's seen it before and is perfctly willing to move in without having any repairs made.

THE SANDERS LOST

Wilmington Passenger Steamer Struck Shoal on Little River Bar Tuesday Night.

WENT QUICKLY TO PIECES

Had Cargo of Cotton, Naval Stores and Other Produce for Wilmington Consignees — Valued at $12,000, Partially Insured.

The steamer Sanders of the Ocean Fisheries Company, of Wilmington, running for a few trips of the steamer Compton, while the latter was laid up for repairs, struck on a shoal on the Little River, S. C., bar during heavy weather Tuesday night, while bound to Wilmington, and is believed to be a total loss, with part of her cargo of cotton and naval stores consigned to Wilmington merchants. Capt. L. J. Pepper and crew got ashore in the yawl boats on board, and came across the country to Southport, reporting the loss to the owners in this city yesterday. The tug Blanche was sent immediately to the rescue of the Sanders, but the steamer could not be reached, and is thought to have gone to pieces ere this. Her stern pole was knocked through the deck when she struck, and she rapidly filled with water. Mr. J. H. Stone, of Stone Brothers Company, agents for the Wilmington, Southport and Little River Transportation Company at Little River, had charge of the saving of the cargo, and had rafted most of the cotton and naval stores and brought it in to shore according to advices received yesterday afternoon.

The Sanders was built in Wilmington in 1903, and was 43 net tons, 85 feet long, 18 feet breadth, drew 6 1-2 feet of water, and was valued at something like $12,000. It is stated that the owners, the Ocean Fisheries Company, were insured for something like 60 or 75 per cent. of her value. Particulars were hard to get yesterday, but it is practically certain that the vessel is a total loss, though some of her machinery may be recovered.

A WORTHY UNDERTAKING.

(Communicated.)

During the war between the States, Capt. Henry Wirz was placed in charge of the prison at Andersonville, Ga., where thousands of Federal prisoners were confined. This officer was a native of Switzerland and came to this country before the war, settled in Louisiana, where he was practicing his profession, medicine, when the war broke out. He was wounded twice, and being incapacitated for field service, was placed in command of this prison. He is said to have been a strict disciplinarian but was a kindly, humane man.

After the war, while the passions of some men were so inflamed that justice and fairness were not considered, Capt. Wirz was put on trial for his life, before a military commission, for the alleged murder of several prisoners. He had a parole in his pocket, but this made no difference, and the expected happened and he was found guilty and sentenced to death by hanging.

The reason this officer was tried developed, when, after his farcial conviction, even the day before he was executed, he was told his life would be spared and he be given his freedom if he would implicate Jefferson Davis in the cruelties at Andersonville. Capt. Wirz rejected the proposal and said he would not purchase his liberty by perjury and a crime such as made a condition of his freedom.

The Daughters of the Confederacy propose to perpetuate the heroic action of this soldier in enduring marble by erecting at Andersonville a monument to his memory.

A comrade has handed me a check for $5 with the request it be sent on to aid our noble women in their worthy object and the suggestion is made that an opportunity be given others to join in this laudable work. Contributions, large or small, will be gladly received and forwarded.

COMPROMISED FOR $4,000

The damage suit of Mr. Chas. D. Willson, of this city, against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company for personal injuries received on the Nutt street crossing of the company in Wilmington on the 16th day of June, 1905, was yesterday compromised by the attorneys representing the railroad and the plaintiff, Mr. Willson receiving an amount that is understood to be $4,000. Judgment according to the compromise will be entered in the Superior Court at this term and this will be the final disposition of the suit.

Mr. Willson was struck by a car while passing over the crossing and received injuries that were alleged to be permanent and of a serious character. The case was tried in the Superior Court last year but the railroad company appealed from the verdict of $5,000 rendered at that time and a new trial was granted on the issue as to the amount of damages and arrangements were being made to re-try the case at this term. However, the compromise was effected and this disposes of the matter. Messrs. Rountree & Carr, William J. Bellamy and Woodus Kellum, Esq., appeared for the plaintiff and Messrs. Davis & Davis and Herbert McClammy, Esq., appeared for the defendant company.

Watson-Barnhill Wedding.

Mr. John M. Barnhill and Miss Mary D. Watson were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Watson, 821 South Front street, at 7:30 o'clock last night, Rev. J. S. Crowley officiating. They will live on the corner of Second and Meares streets.

SUPERIOR COURT SESSION

Verdict For Plaintiffs as to One Defendant in McDougall Case—Damage Suit Against Seaboard Air Line Now On.

All of yesterday in the Superior Court was taken up with the completion of the hearing of the case of Rheinstein Dry Goods Company against Miss Bettie McDougall and others of Laurinburg, N. C., and the partial selection of a jury to hear the damage suit of Eliza Jane Rogers against the Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company. A verdict for the plaintiff as to one of the defendants, L. A. Monroe, was returned by the jury in the McDougall case and eleven jurors were in the box for the trial of the Rogers suit when court at 5 o'clock took a recess until this morning at 9:30 A. M.

All the forenoon session of the court yesterday was taken up with the completion of the hearing of the suit of Rheinstein Dry Goods Company against Misses Bettie and Sallie McDougall and others, general merchants, of Laurinburg, N. C. The taking of the testimony was resumed at 9:30 o'clock and when this was completed the argument of counsel to the jury was begun. Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan opened for the plaintiff and was followed by Messrs. McClammy and Maxcy L. John for the defendants. In the afternoon ex-Judge Bryan closed for the plaintiff. By instruction of the court before the case was presented to the jury, one of the issues was answered absolving E. S. Whitaker, W. C. Beavins, F. L. Bundy and Geo. D. Evington from responsibility in connection with the firm and the main issue went to the jury as to L. A. Monroe, another of the parties defendants. It was this question that was presented to the jury. The defendants who were held not to be members of the firm were represented by E. H. Gibson, Esq., of Laurinburg. The issue as to Mr. Monroe was answered as follows:

"Was the defendant, L. A. Monroe, a partner in the firm of B. and S. McDougall at the time of the making of the contract of indebtedness referred to in the first issue?" The answer was "Yes," a verdict having been returned about 4 o'clock after the jury had been out only an hour or probably less.

In the case of Southern Distilling Company against Steljes & Company, judgment was given by consent. Jno. D. Bellamy & Son represented the Southern Distilling Company and A. J. Marshall, Esq., the defendant firm.

The suit of Eliza Jane Rogers against the Seaboard is for damages for having been put off of one of defendant's trains at Navassa several years ago. She alleges that the train was stopped before it reached the platform and that she was forced to walk in the dark to find her way to the station and in doing so fell and was injured permanently. Herbert McClammy, Esq., represents the plaintiff and Maj. Jno. D. Shaw, of Rockingham, and Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy & Son appear for the defendant company. Eleven jurors were in the box on the case when a recess for the day was taken yesterday afternoon. These were as follows: A. N. Hewett, D. N. Stanley, C. D. Foard, D. D. Benton, Jno. C. Boesch, M. Schulken, J.

CROP DAMAGE GREAT

ICE CONRACTS CANCELLED

Already Enough Refrigeration for Fruit That Will Be Marketable This Season—Yield in Chadbourn Territory 900 Cars.

Reports from the Eastern North Carolina strawberry belt, these reports coming from people whose business it is to know the real condition of affairs, indicate that the crop for the present season is cut off at least one-half by the late unseasonably cold weather and freeze. The Chadbourn section, which nominally yields shipments of between 1,200 and 1,500 cars, will this season, according to maximum estimates, yield not more than 900 cars and the conditions in the Wilmington and Weldon and A. & Y. sections are said to be correspondingly the same, if not more discouraging. All told, it is not expected that the crop will be over 50 per cent of the 2,300 cars shipped from the territory last season. This crop damage became apparent only within the last few days when the warm sunshine began to strike the fruit. Blooms on the vines were cut off at the outset and the unripe berries, which froze, have turned black and rotted. The crop, in other words, this season, will about amount to what can bloom and mature during the remainder of the season with no more cold.

What gives authority to these reports is the cancellation by the Armour Car Lines of any further orders for refrigeration, notice having been received by the Independent Ice Company yesterday morning that no more than the amount of ice now stored as reserve will be needed for the movement of the crop in the light of the devlopment of such great damage to the fruit. The freeze came just as the shipments were about to start and is quite provoking and discouraging to the growers. The ice plant at Chadbourn will be closed down early next week and the Independent plant in this city from which large quantities of refrigeration is shipped to all points, will likely close for the present at least, this week. Six thousand tons are now stored at Chadbourn and it is expected that this will be able to take care of the crop, whereas, usually the plant would have been required to be kept in constant operation until late in May to take care of the refrigeration for anything like an average yield.

With the 1,500 cars cut down to not more than 900 at the outside from the Chadbourn belt and a corresponding decrease in the other sections, it means that the shipments this year will hardly exceed 1,300 cars against 2,300 last year. While this will greatly relieve the transportation companies, it means thousands of dollars of loss to the ruckers, amounting to little less than a public calamity. The Armour people, of course, have carefully investigated the conditions and they are pretty near the truth with their estimates of the short crop by reason of the cold. While they do not give out figures for publication, the cancellation for ice is significant and means that the growers have only half realized what they have suffered by the cold snap. The weather at present is anything but favorable for the expected second crop and as a whole the outlook is most discouraging. No shipments of any extent are now going forward at all and the berries that are marketed are knotty and very inferior in quality.

MERCHANT SHOT LAST NIGHT.

Fred Howland Badly Wounds Mr. Needham E. Farrow.

Needham E. Farrow, a merchant who has a store at Seventh and Chestnut streets, was shot by Fred Howland, a well-known young white man, last night about 9 o'clock at Mr. Farrow's place of business.

It is stated that on several previous occasions Mr. Farrow has ordered Howland out of his store, and told him to keep away from there. Last night Howland went there, was under the influence of whiskey and was making himself disagreeable. Mr. Farrow ordered him out and Howland refused to go, saying he would not go out until he got ready.

Howland's statement is that Mr. Farrow then came from behind the counter and struck him and pushed him out of the door, whereupon he fired at him.

When Howland shot he was standing on the pavement and Mr. Farrow was just inside the door. The bullet struck Mr. Farrow on the hand, passed through it and lodged in the fleshy part of his thigh. He was taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital where the ball was probed for without success.

After the shooting Howland was arrested by Police Sergeant C. S. Burnett.

A young man, about 16 years old, who writes a plain hand, may secure a place for office work by applying at the Star office. Must have best recommendations. apr 14-3t.

FUNERAL OF MR. R.H. BEERY

Impressive Services Yesterday Afternoon from Market Street M. E. Church—Military Honors Paid by Local Lt. Infantry.

In the presence of a large assemblage of friends at Market Street M. E. Church yesterday afternon at 4:30 o'clock impressive funeral services were conducted over the remains of the late Mr. Robert H. Beery, whose sad and untimely death occurred Monday night at the hospital. The services were by Rev. J. W. Potter, former pastor and a close personal friend of the deceased, assisted by Rev. W. L. Rexford, the present pastor of the congregation, and Rev. W. L. Cunninggim, presiding elder of the Wilmington District M. E. Church. The funeral was with military honors, Mr. Beery having been a former captain of the Wilmington Light Infantry, which assembled at the armory and under command of Capt. Robertson, attended the obsequies in a body.

The funeral hymns were rendered touchingly by a special choir and the floral tributes were many and very pretty. One of these was from the Sheepshead Club, an organization of local anglers of which Mr. Beery was an enthusiastic member. Others were from the Sunday School of the church, the Wilmington Light Infantry and the Woodmen of the World.

After the services at the church the long funeral procession moved slowly to beautiful Oakdale cemetery, where all that was mortal of this good citizen and churchman was laid to rest. The pall-bearers were: Honorary, Drs. F. H. Russell and D. W. Bulluck; active, Dr. J. H. Dreher, Messrs. R. E. Blake, Martin Newmann, W. B. Cooper, R. H. Pickett, J. W. Smith, E. B McKenzie and Col. T. C. James.

After the services taps were sounded and a salute was fired over the grave in honor of their deceased comrad by the light infantry.

DECISION IN HORNE CASE

Opinion of Supreme Court in Much Discussed Damage Suit from Wilmington—Digest of Ruling on Several Points.

As announced yesterday the Supreme Court of the State affirms the judgment of the lower court awarding Melvin Horne damages in the sum of $12,000 for the loss of his arm in an accident at Front and Dock streets in February 1904 while he was employed as a lamp trimmer for the Consolidated Company, of this city. The News and Observer of yesterday publishes the following digest of the opinion of the court in the case:

"Horne vs. Electric Company, from New Hanover. No error.

"1. Even though a complaint make separate, specific allegations of negligence as arising on the facts, if every phase of the controversy and relevant fact and circumstances could be fully presented in the general issues, the allegations were properly conciderred as evidential on the general charge of negligence, and there was no error in a refusal to submit separate issues addressed to such specific allegations.

"2. The action of the Judge in permitting a witness to qualify as an expert is conclusive when there is evidence tending to support such finding.

"3. Testimony by an electrical expert as to the different placing of a poll whereby a contact with an iron awning might have been avoided was simply a recital of objective facts coming under witness's observation, in effect a description of the place, apart from which the description of the pole and the method by which the electric lamp was raised and lowered, involving the structure and operation of the appliances and method by which electricity was conveyed to the lamp, was to that extent within the domain of his peculiar knowledge and training as an expert witness.

"4. Where it appeared that defendant company had placed a primary wire heavily charged withh electricty under wires holding and controling an electric lamp in such position that in raising and lowering the lamp the wires would come in contact making wear or burn away, and this at a point where plaintiff in doing his work in the ordinary and natural way would likely come in contact with an iron awning, thus grounding the current and making serious or fatal injuries almost certain, Held: That there was a clear breach of duty to the plaintiff by the defendant to exercise the utmost degree of care in the handling of the dangerous agency of electricity and motion of non-suit was properly refused."

ITS ANNUAL BANQUET

Merchants' Association Gafthered at Festive Board at Colonial Inn Last Night.

STRONG ARRAY OF SPEAKERS

Subjects of Vital Interest to Business Men Discussed By Business Men Who Know—Elegant Menu and Other Features.

Nearly a hundred prominent Wilmington business men and their guests assembled last night in the pretty dining room of The Colonial Inn, Third and Market streets, the occasion being the annual banquet of the Wilmington Merchants' Association. The banquet room was prettily decorated with Southern smilax and other evergreens, these being festooned on the walls and from the chandeliers in the centre. In each window were placed palms, which gave a very appropriate setting to the delightful affair. Excellent music was furnished during the evening and the banquet passed off quite pleasantly in every respect.

It was nearly 10 o'clock when the doors flew wide open and the guests were bidden inside. The tables were arranged "U" shape, President L. B. Rogers, the toastmaster, and the distinguished guests being seated at the head, commanding a view of the entire room. In addition to the set speakers of the evening, the Association was delighted to have present also, President C. C. Moore, of the North Carolina Division Southern Cotton Association, who is most pleasantly remembered in Wilmington. Mr. Moore came by Wilmington on an itinerary of the State with General Organizer E. D. Smith, of the Cotton Association, who was one of the principal speakers of the evening.

President Rogers, the toastmaster, shortly before 11 o'clock called the banqueters to order, expressing pleasure at the large attendance, and introducing the first speaker, Norman H. Johnson, Esq., of Raleigh, Attorney General of the North Carolina Retail Merchants' Association, who had for his subject "The Merchants' Association and Its Work." Mr. Johnson captivated his hearers at the outset with a couple of little anecdotes, and then drifted into the serious part of his discussion. First he laid down the broad proposition that freight rates in North Carolina were the highest in existence and argued at length to show that there was rank discrimination in favor of business centres of other States. He said that the act passed by the last Legislature would reduce freight rates 15 to 20 per cent., but there were other remedies required and he called upon the business men to co-operate for still further remedies. He delivered a rap at trading stamps, spoke of the evils of the cut-rate system and the persistent calls upon merchants for donations. He endorsed newspaper advertising as the wisest and most judicious means of publicity and called upon merchants to co-operate and organize for mutual benefit. He extolled the Legislature which recently adjourned, paying high tribute to that body, as one of the most able, most valuable that ever assembled in the State of North Carolina. These remarks, however, were not vociferously applauded. He closed with an earnest appeal for co-operation.

Hon. E. D. Smith, of Columbia, S C., General Organizer of the Southern Cotton Association, was next introduced and made a rattling good speech. His subject was the "Industrial Development of the South." His address was earnest, appealing ornate, eloquent, pleasing. He was heard with the greatest pleasure and his remarks were liberally punctured with the most enthusiastic applause. His tribute to "King Cotton" and his application of the financial side of the marketing of the great staple was a fine argument for organization by the grower and the establishment of the warehouse system for the protection of prices of the South's monopoly and the world's necessity. His peroration was as pretty and as eloquent as was ever heard here. He received unstinted applause all through.

President J. A. Taylor, of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, was presented as a man who needed no introduction to a Wilmington audience. His subject was "Business Men to the Body Politic," and his address was an able and logical presentation of the theme. The business man was often very indifferent to his duties, he said, and he went on to show why business men should bear a very close relation to the body politic of the State and Nation. He was given earnest, close attention, all his applications being practical and pointed. He referred to the corruption in municipal politics and analyzed this with reference to the body politic. He was given the warmest applause at the conclusion of his splendid response.

President C. C. Moore, of the Cotton Association in North Carolina, was presented in a very happy introduction by Toastmaster Rogers, who said that his subject would be "The Universe." Always at home in whatever presence, Mr. Moore responded in a happy speech, embellished with apt illustration and infinite jest.

COL HARVEY BLACKLISTED.

A few days ago we were surprised to pick up Harper's Weekly and find there was a strong anti-Roosevelt tone to it, beginning with the leading editorial. Right at the front was a cartoon representing a workman with a dinner pail and two labels in effect "filled by McKinley; will it be emptied by Roosevelt?" It was surprising to find such a staid Republican publication against the Republican administration—the Roosevelt administration in particular.

Col. George Harvey is editor of Harper's Weekly and of the North American Review, and now comes the news from Washington that the Colonel has been put on the fatal list of "the rich men's conspiracy" at the White House. However, it was not exactly owing to the attitude of Harper's Weekly, but it seems that Col. Harvey offended gravely at the Jefferson Dinner in New York Saturday night when he made a speech in denunciation of President Roosevelt's policies, and it might be added that he also assailed the principles of William J. Bryan. It is stated that the distinguished editor and literary man at the Jefferson Dinner preached a sermon against one-man power and severely criticised President Roosevelt. President Roosevelt took notice of Col. Harvey's speech and on Monday, the Washington correspondent of the New York Times sends his paper this:

"In due form and with all proper solemnity this speech was pointed out at the White House this morning as evidence that Col. Harvey had joined the conspiracy to prevent the nomination of a man of the Roosevelt type for the Presidency next year. It required a little ingenuity to make the connection, but ingenuity in politics is not lacking at the White House, where, according to official declaration they "are not novices."

"In this case Col. Harvey was connected with the rich conspirators through his relations with J. Pierpont Morgan. It was not very long ago that Mr. Morgan was regarded at the Executive Mansion with felings which would not have justified the calling of any man a conspirator just for being associated with him. But since the revelations about Harriman, who once was and now is far from being a friend to be consulted about messages to Congress and other important governmental affairs, there has developed a decided tendency to examine with great care all the sayings and doings of any man who may have ever crossed the path of one of those Wall Street millionaires.

"In somewhat indefinite manner it was recalled to-day that during the peace negotiations at Portsmouth in the Fall of 1905, Col. Harvey issued invitations to M. Witte and some other members of the Russian delegation for a dinner. M. Witte did not accept the invitation, as the story goes, and the reason intimated was that on making investigation as to whom Col. Harvey was, he found out that his would-be host was in fact "the representative and mouthpiece" of J. Pierpont Morgan. From what was said the inference was drawn that it was through officials of this Government that M. Witte derived this information on which he declined the honor of dining with Col. Horvey. At any rate, ever since that invitation was refused, Col. Harvey has held the administration, and particularly Mr. Roosevelt, responsible for his discomfiture and has acted accordingly. That on the solemn authority for this whole story, is the real reason for the bitter shafts which Col. Harvey has been launching at the President recently.

"It is becoming more and more apparent that no opportunity is to be lost to arraign the rich men of the Republican Party as conspirators against the continuation of the Roosevelt policies. It was pointed out as soon as the remarkable disclosures were first made at the White House that they would have the effect of lining up the sheep and the goats. Now it appears that lest there should be any failure to effect that lining up, each man who delivers himself of anything unfriendly to the Roosevelt regime is to be branded at once as a conspirator. The interview with H. H. Rogers, which was printed the other day, promptly received this sort of attention at the White House, and Col. Harvey's utterance is not allowed to get by the first business morning after its delivery without being duly catalogued.

"There is much comment in Washington about this action of the White House experts. Men known to be genuinely friendly to the President and desirous of securing the continuation of his programme of trust prosecution and anti-trust legislation, are beginning to express their doubts about the political wisdom of this wholesale accusation. There was no doubt in their minds that the first general assault hit the mark it was intended for, and the Roosevelt followers throughout the country accept with joyous acclaim the old cry of the Populists, "Rich men's conspiracy," now advanced by the Republican President.

"But they began to fear that just as the Populists made themselves tiresome by the iteration and reiteration of their accusation, this new clamor against rich men generally will soon exhaust itself and leave the real friends of the programme which the President has carried along successfully so far worse off than if the conspirators had been permitted to work unheeded.

"Mr. Roosevelt has been accused many times of having stolen Democratic thunder and carried away plank after plank from the Democratic platforms. But this new cry, it is pointed out, goes further than any Democrat ever went, and takes him squarely into the old Populist camp. The greatest rallying cry of the Populists was their denunciation of the rich, and that is the very thing that the President is now counting on to carry him and his friends through the campaign for control of the Republican National Convention next year."

PRESIDENT MAKING AT WASHINGTON.

Judging from all that is coming from Washington there is considerable opposition to President Roosevelt's campaign—not to make himself the nominee of the Republican party for President next year, but to name the candidate whom the party shall run.

It is no longer a secret at Washington that Secretary Taft is Roosevelt's man. Henry W. Taft, of New York, brotherof the Secretary of War, was in Washington on Monday and spent three-quarters of an hour with the President at the White House. Mr. Taft admitted afterwards that he had talked political matters with the President, and there you are.

The fight meanwhile is going on against the President's campaign to name the Presidential candidate, and in that connection the Washington Post on Tuesday says:

"The first definite news of organized opposition among Southern Republicans to the plan of the President to control the next National convention came from Atlanta, Ga., yesterday. It was in the form of a press dispatch to the effect that the Georgia Republican State League, made up largely of negro Republicans, had started to work to elect a delegation to the convention that will be opposed to President Roosevelt or any candidate for whom he may stand sponsor. It is stated also that the movement is in the interest of Senator Foraker.

"This dispatch is confirmatory of private advices said to have been received here during the last few days. Information is reported to have come from confidential sources that a concerted movement was on foot in Georgia to select an anti-Roosevelt delegation, and that many Republicans of the State were actively interested in it. It is undrstood also that this activity is becoming apparent in other Southern States, where the negroes feel extremely grateful to Senator Foraker on account of his attitude in the Brownsville case.

"It is not known whether the Ohio Senator himself has entered upon a canvas for delegates in the South. The best information is to the effect that he has not yet bestirred himself to that end, but it would be surprising if before long steps of a practical nature were taken in his interest."

CURRENT COMMENT.

—"A number of John Paul Jones' relics have come to light in North Carolina." Widows or bones?—Richmond News Leader.

—Mr. Graves should know that when a man reaches the point, where he considers it his duty to rise above party it is time for him to get out.—Durham Herald.

—Possibly Prophet Dowie left that unkissed son of his only $10 because he feared the chorus girls would get after him if he inherited more than that.—Washington Post.

—If Senator Foraker has read about "bollwar," the Panama drink that makes a man feel like fighting an earthquake, he must be inclined to keep his followers supplied with it during the row in Ohio.—Washington Post.

—What is the matter with those Iowa Republicans who hissed the picture of Roosevelt and what does the Legislature mean by endorsing Governor Cummins instead of the President? They evidently remember that the President sat down on Governor Cummins' tariff reform program and stood by Shaw, who is a standpat and a political dead duck in Iowa and elsewhere.—Greensboro Record.

—We see in the New York Press that "announcement is made of a world trust in rubber, wherein King Leopold will have as associates the following gentlemen among others: John D. Rockefeller, Jr., the Guggenheims, Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, Col. Samuel P. Colt, of the American Rubber Company, Anthony N. Brady, of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co., Thomas F. Ryan." If that information is correct it isn't difficult to see King Leopold's finish.—Savannah News.

—Congressman James Hay, of Virginia, is strongly opposed to a movement which has been started in that state to abolish the primary system. He believes in the primary as the best means of nominating candidates. He is the same Hay who came out so vigorously recently in condemnation of Col. John Temple Graves' preposterous suggestion that Bryan ought to nominate Roosevelt for the Presidency. Looks like Mr. Hay might be a man of right fair common sense.—Greensboro Telegram.

—The war between Russia and Japan was officially ended September 5, 1905, when the Treaty of Portsmouth was signed. But it appears that Manchuria, where most of the fighting was done, hasn't yet been evacuated by the contending parties. There have been numerous reports of the withdrawal of the troops of each country, yet the fact remains that each army still has representatives in the disputed territory. The latest report is to the effect that the evacuaion by both sides will be completed by the middle of the current month.—Savannah News.

Dangerous urinary troubles follow.

A Wilmington citizen shows you how to avoid them.

J. E. Bloodworth, formerly residing at 30 South Front street and empoyed at 123 Princess street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have proven to be a valuable remedy and I believe I am safe in recommending them. My back and kidneys have given me great trouble. I thought I had rheumatism. I had shooting pains through my back and sides which often made me yell right out. If I stood, sat or lay down or kept in any position for any length of time it was almost impossible for me to move on account of the great pain. I heard some one speak of Doan's Kidney Pills and sent down to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. They completely removed the pains. They are without doubt a valuable remedy for backache."

LITTLE AWKWARD FOR ROOSEVELT

Senator Borah, of Idaho, Indicted and Appeals to President—Charged With Complicity in Timber Frauds.

(Washington Post, April 16.)

United States Senator Borah, of Idaho, recently indicted in his State for alleged complicity in timber frauds, has appealed to the President and Attorney General Bonaparte to call a halt on the energy of District Attorney Ruick. He claims that his indictment was brought about through a conspiracy on the part of Ruick, who is his political enemy, and the miners of Idaho.

The grand jury is now in session investigating these alleged timberland frauds, and the indications are that all the prominent Republican leaders of the State will be caught in the dragnet the district attorney has thrown out.

Senator Borah is the attorney representing the State in the prosecution of Haywood, Moyer, and Pettibone, officials of the Western Federation of Miners, who are charged with the murder of former Gov. Steunenburg, of Idaho. The President and Attorney General Bonaparte will be told that the persistence of the United States district attorney will interfere with the speedy trial of the men whom the President so recently, in his reply to the Harriman letter, severely condemned and denounced.

It will also be pointed out that the grand jury is gathering in none but the big Republicans of the State, the men who are running the Republican machine, and the very men for whom Secretary Taft made his Western trip last fall and spoke in the State during the campaign.

The appeal of Senator Borah makes an embarrassing situation for the President. If he yields to the Senator's entreaty he will put himself in the attitude of interfering with the duty the district attorney feels called upon to prosecute to the end, and if he does not, the Senator, as one of the attorneys prosecuting the men who have been so bitterly denounced by the President, may be so situated that he cannot go on with the case. The President, it is understood, has as yet made no reply to the request of Senator Borah to hold up these indictments, nor is it known that the papers and evidence bearing upon the case have been brought to his attention.

Senator Borah is said to have been the attorney for the Barber Lumber Company, a part of the lumber trust. He also was the attorney and personal friend of the late Gov. Steunenburg, who was reported to be the principal representative of the lumber trust in Idaho. The entire Republican State machine of the State is said to be mixed up in the timber land frauds District Attorney Ruick is now endeavoring to bring to light.

A number of arrests already have been made in these cases, although little concerning the facts has been published in the Eastern press. One of the men arrested is John Kincaid, a brother of Representative Kincaid, of Nebraska, who complains bitterly that he has been unfairly treated. Mr. Kincaid is said to have had intimate business dealings with the late Governor.

Manager Chapman, of the Barber Lumber Company, is now in jail for contempt of court in not producing certain books before the grand jury. When the district attorney went before Federal Judge Batty for an order for these books the court went further than he asked and ordered Chapman to turn over all books and papers. The district attorney got the books, and is now after the canceled checks and stubs of the lumber company deposited in the various State banks, through which he hopes to be able to trace the payments made by the company.

The Steuenenberg and Borah people declare that these indictments are a part of a plot of organized men in Idaho to becloud the issue and prevent the trial of the officials of the Feedration of Miners, or, at least, to create sentiment for the men soon to be tried. It is another interesting chapter in the long story of land frauds in Western States.

—Durham Sun: W. S. Powell, who pulls the bell cord on the Seaboard passenger train between this point and Henderson, was a mad man, one day last week. He was coming to Durham an hour behind time, and his train was expected to rattle by Clay, a flag station, like an automobile splitting the wind. But Capt. Powell was flagged down, and he came to a stop. When his train ceased moving a fellow climbed up the steps of the first coach and said to the wondering conductor, who was anxious to know what was the matter. "Captain, I have lost my tobacco." In the captain's mind arose a large shipment, and here was trouble to be straightened out, and he inquired: "Where did you lose it. How much did you lose?" "It was a package of Duke's Mixture. I had used just a little out of it. I went down with you the other day, and lost it in that last car. Wish you would look it up." Capt. Powell, as he pulled the cord, looking far off on the landscape, with a face as devoid of a smile as a pancake, told him he would look.

C. L. to Clinton, and there were here yesterday in consultation with the Commission about this General Passenger Agent W J. Craig and General Superintendent A. W. Anderson of the A. C. L. FIRE AT LAURINBURG.

Handsome Residence of Mr. R. E. Lee Burned Tuesday Morning.

Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock the handsome residence of Mr. R. E. Lee, one of the leading merchants of Laurinburg, N. C., was totally destroyed by fire with nearly all the household furnishings. A portion of these were saved but it is said that Mr. Lee's loss will reach $5,000 over and above the insurance on the property. The origin of the fire is unknown. Other entries on the docket yesterday were as follows: Swift Co., against Jno. W. Capps, continued. Lena Wessell against Annie Howard, referred to Geo. H. Howell, Esq. J. E. C. Brown against J. K. ITS ANNUAL BANQUET treasurer and attorney of the Wilmington Merchants' Association, was exceedingly happy in his postprandial remarks upon "The Credit System. Its Rise, Its Faults, Its Remedies." He had views of his own and expressed them tersely and with acute direction.

Mr. Smith was heard for a few minutes on the subject of immigration, and at 2 o'clock the banquet was declared over.

Mr. Rogers made a most excellent toastmaster, filling the duties of the position with ease and dignity.

The committee in charge of the banquet arrangements was composed of Messrs. L. B. Rogers, Louis Goodman, Thos. F. Bagley and W. A. French, Jr., and they are due a vote of thanks for the excellent manner in which every detail of the evening passed off. Proprietor J. P. Goldsborough was also present in person to see that the desires of each and every guest were fully met. He made a great success of the banquet and established a reputation for the Colonial Inn in affairs of the kind.

Elegant menu cards with engraved covers in gold tint announced the bill of fare and the speakers of the evening, these being pretty souvenirs of the occasion. The menu was as follows:

EDDY LITIGATION HAS EVIL MOTIVE

So Say Attorneys For Founder of Christian Science Church About Suit.

IS RESULT OF PREJUDICE

Mrs. Eddy's Lawyers Put in Vigorous and Aggressive Answer—Demand Proof of All Allegations—Mrs. Not Incompetent.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Concord, N. H., April 17.—The charge that the suit for an accounting of the property of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, filed March 1, was not brought in good faith by the so-called "next friends" named in the suit, is contained in the answer of the defendants in the action, which was filed in the Merrimack County Superior Court to-day.

The defendants charge that the so-called "next friends" have been induced to loan their names for use in the suit "at the instigation and at the expense of certain evil minded persons, not related in any way to said Mary Baker G. Eddy or having any interest in her or her estate."

These persons, the defendants allege, are hostile to Mary Baker G. Eddy and the religious principles of which she is the founder and exponent. The defendants further say that they have no knowledge or information respecting many of the allegations in the bill, but demand proof of all material matters therein contained, not specifically admitted and they say they ought not to make this or any answer to this bill because it is mutifarious, vague and indefinite, and filled with immaterial, scandalous and irrelevant matter and does not set forth any cause of action under the laws of the State of New Hampshire.

The answer of the defendants is a general denial of all the allegations made by the complainants in the original action of George W. Glover, Mary Baker Glover and George W. Baker, who sued as Mrs. Eddy's "next friends."

Besides the defendants, Calvin A. Frye, Irving C. Tomlinson, Herman S. Hering and Lewis C. Strang, of Concord, the New Hampshire residents among the defendants named in the original bill in equity on behalf of Mrs. Eddy, filed their answer in the Superior Court for Merrimack county to-day. Mr. Frye says he has been in the emlpoy of Mrs. Eddy for about 25 years, for a considerable part of the time as private secretary. During all that time, her house at Concord and all other houses in which she has resided, together with all persons employed or connected therewith have always been under the absolute control and direction of Mrs. Eddy. Mrs. Eddy determines for herself whom she will see, and the length of time that will be given for that purpose, according to Mr. Frye's answer, and the defendant denies that he ever personally or in conjunction with Strang or others of the defendants refused to allow any person or persons to see Mrs. Eddy, or that he has prescribed or limited the time to be allowed to persons desiring to confer with her, except in accordance with the rules prescribed by the said Mary B. G. Eddy for the conduct of her household and business.

The defendant denies also that Mrs. Eddy is and has been for many late years not legally responsible for acts done by her and unfit to manage and control her business and property but on the contrary he avers that she always has directed and managed her business affairs.

The answer of Strang is practically the same as that of Frye, while the answers of Tomlinson and Herring vary in so far as their relations with Mrs. Eddy differ from those of Frye and Strang.

To-day's proceedings furnished the latest chapter in the story of the litigation which already has become involved in the transfer on the part of Mrs. Eddy of all her property to three trustees, Henry M. Baker, Archbald McLellan and Josiah E. Fernald, who have petitioned the court to be substituted as plaintiffs in place of the original parties and the answer to this petition filed by the latter, declaring that the deed of trust was illegal on account of the alleged incompetence of the grantor to create the trust.

Opposing Counsel.

Boston, Mass., April 17.—Former Senator William E. Chandler and other counsel for the complainant in the suits for an accounting of the property of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, met in consultation in this city this afternoon. The object of the conference, it is understood, is to prepare the next move of the complainants. Besires Mr. Chandler, Frederick Peabody, of Boston; John W. Kelley, of Portsmouth, N. H., and Martin & Howe, of Concord, were present at the conference.

JEWELRY THIEF ARRESTED.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Richmond, Va., April 17.—George A. Creekmore, alias George A. Aye, was arrested here today on suspicion of being the man wanted for various robberies of jewelry from Fifth Avenue residences, New York. He was masquerading as a "second lieutenant in the United States secret service." He claims now to be a waiter by occupation, and to have come here to wed a Richmond girl. He is being held for identification by New York officers.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Small Dealings and General Decline in Interest.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 17.—The only fact of any importance to be drawn from the action of today's stock market was its narrowing proportions, due to the decline in general interest in the operations. The demand from uncovered shorts, which was responsible for yesterday's brisk price movement, in spite of the small dealings was carried somewhat further today before it had exhausted its influence on prices. Dealings then lapsed into a state of lethargy. This condition is regarded as rather seasonable, especially after so severe a liquidation as was completed last month. The course of the money market with active resumpton of demand for currency from the interior is a subject of uncertainty. With the added problems of the outcome of the year's crop and the extent to which the slowing down in trade may go, the halt in stock speculation becomes intelligible. News developments were of small consequence as they affected the market.

Th strength of the morning was connected to an important extent with the further recovery in copper metal in the London market. Money here was firmer, although the change was scarcely perceptible. New York exchange at Chicago has fallen to 25 s discount, while foreign exchange cents discount, while foreign exchange change here is firmer. Discounts hardened in London and the likelihood of a further reduction in the Bank of England discount rate is lessened by the movement of gold from London to Paris. Today's statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany showed a rapid further recuperation from the strain of the April settlement, reflected in the statement of two weeks ago. Last prices of stocks were near the lowest.

Bonds were irregular. Ttotal par value $1,298,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales stocks today 750,000 shares.

DAUGHTERS OF REVOLUTION.

Continental Hall Building Fund $250,000—Visit to Washington's Tomb.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, April 17.—The features of today's proceedings of the Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution were the dedication of the memorial portico at the Memorial Continental Hall and the collection of contributions to swell the Continental Hall building fund. Tonight the delegates were given a reception at the Library of Congress.

Practically the entire afternoon session was devoted to the announcements of the contributions to the building fund by the various State chapters. Great interest was taken in the proceedings and when unusually large contributions were made the delegates cheered. Already the organization had accumulated a fund of $250,000 for this purpose and it is believed that with today's contributions there will be nearly enough to pay for the building.

The Congress will elect officers tomorrow and Mrs. McLean's friends are making the claim that sufficient votes have been pledged to re-elect the president-general, despite the fact that her candidacy has not been endorsed by the New York State delegation. There is also much activity in the camp of the "insurgents," who will present candidates for all the offices in opposition to the administration or McLean's slate.

The National Society of the Children of the American Revolution, a kindred organization which is also holding its annual convention here, will make its annual pilgrimage to the tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon tomorrow. Mrs. Fred T. DuBois, of Idaho, national president, has requested many of the Daughters of the American Revolution to accompany the children on this trip. The exercises of the day will be held at the tree planted by members of the society several years ago and a wreath will be placed on General Washington's tomb.

NEW PASTOR FROM ENGLAND.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New oYrk, April 17.—The Rev. C. F. Aked, who comes here from Liverpool to accept a call from the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church in this city, arrived here today on the steamer Carmania. Mr. Aked said the only comment he cared to make on his mission to this country was that he felt he had delayed his coming to America ten years too long.

"I am forty-two years old now. I should have come here ten years ago. While my work at Liverpool has filled my time acceptibly, I think I could have made more of my time here. I come to America with great anticipation of the possibilities before me."

When a newspaper clipping, in which he was alluded to as "Rockefeller's new pastor," was shown to Mr. Aked by a reporter, he said: "I know nothing of Mr. Rockefeller. It is not fair. I can't talk about him. I think it is very hard to keep calling that church 'Rockefeller's church.' Why he is not a member. It is a powerful and influential church without Mr. Rockefeller. He is a seatholder and belongs to a church in Cleveland."

Mr. Aked was informed that Mr. Rockefeller, Jr., was connected with the Fifth America Church. He replied: "Yes, I know. Young Mr. Rockefeller is a member of the church, a trustee, and the leader of the Bible class."

Mr. Akd said that his Liverpool congregation was probably the most cosmopolitan in the world, but he added, no distinction would be made in the Fifth Avenue Church. "The poor stranger will be welcomed just as heartily as the richest man or woman in the congregation," the minister said. "My message is 'a ministry of reconciliation.'"

Other arrivals on the Carmania included a party of twenty-six, headed by Bishop Kelley, of Savannah, and Bishop Shanley, of Fargo.

GERMANY'S JEALOUSY AROUSED

Feeling That England is Scheming to Upset Triple Alliance.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Berlin, April 17.—King Edward's approaching meeting with King Victor Emanuel at Gaeta is attracting much attention in the German press which comments on the event as being an effort to isolate Germany and win Italy away from the triple alliance. An article in the Cologne Gazette in this sense is being widely discussed because it is believed to have been inspired from Berlin. The writer says public opinion in Germany sees in King Edward's course an attempt to disturb the European equitbrium which is calculated to awaken misgivings regarding his disarmment proposal, and then finally warns Great Britain that "war with Germany would be dangerous for any opponent or any coalition of opponents."

This sharp language is interpreted by the Tagliche Rundschau as meaning that the German government has grown weary of the "English game of hide and seek and the comedy of peace and disarmament."

Paris, April 17.—The forthcoming meeting of King Edward and King Victor Emmanuel at Gaeta is viewed with the utmost satisfaction in governmental circles here, where the general conference is considesed as not likely to strengthen the cordial relations existing between Italy and Great Britain, but as binding closer the ties between those two countries and France and as exerting a good effect on the European situation.

HARRY THAW AND HIS COUNSEL.

Hartridge and Peabody Retained. Mrs. Holman Told Truth.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 17.—Clifford W. Hartridge tonight, after Russell A. Peabody had had a talk with Harry K. Thaw in the Tombs prison, made public the following letter:

"Messrs. Hartridge and Peabody:

"Dear Sirs—Please continue as my attorneys of record.

"Very sincerely,

"HARRY K. THAW."

Lawyer Hartridge had no comment to make on the letter.

Although District Attorney Jerome returned to his office from a visit to his home in Lakeville, Conn., today, no move yet has been made toward an application for Thaw's release. Daniel O'Reilly, of Thaw's counsel, called on Mr. Jerome this afternoon, he said, that the matter of bail for the prisoner was not mentioned. Mr. Jerome, in speaking of the case, said that his position is unchanged from what it was immediately after the jury reported a disagreement, namely, that he would oppose in every possible way the release of Thaw on bail.

When questioned about the signed statement issued by Mrs. Nesbit-Holman, mother of Mrs. H. K. Thaw, yesterday, Mr. Jerome said he had read it. "I can't vouch for some of the things said by Mrs. Holman, because I do not know about them," said the District Attorney," but I can assure you that when she said she had furnished the District Attorney no information for use in connection with the trial of Thaw she spoke the truth. Mrs. Holman never gave us any information."

CENTRAL AMERICAN WAR.

Peace Conference Between President of Salvador and Nicaragua.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

San Salvador, April 17.—President Figueria has been ready to accept the invitation of President Zelaya, of Nicaragua, and attend the peace conference at Amapala. But at the last moment President Zelaya, through the agency of Philip M. Brown, Secretary of the American Legation to Guatamala and Honduras, asked to be excused from personal attendance on account of sickness and requested President Figueria to send his Minister of Foreign Affairs to the conference. The latter desiring to show his sincerity and love of peace agreed to this proposal and consequently Garcia Gonzales, the Foreign Minister of Salvador, left here today to confer with Jose D. Gomez, the Nicaraguan Minister of Foreign Affairs, on board the American cruiser Chicago at Amapala.

Mexico, April 17.—President Manuel Bonilla, of Honduras, was landed at Salinas Cruz, Mexico, from the United States gunboat Princeton today. President Bonilla is expected to come directly to this city. He left the Honduran port of Amapala last Saturday aboard the Princeton after having entered into an agreement with President Zelaya, of Nicaragua, and President Figueria, of Salvador, that he should quit Central America.

WHOLE FAMILY WAS POISONED.

Two Members Dead and Second Attempt May Kill Three.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, April 17.—Three surviving members of the Mette family, of this city, two of whose members recently died because of arsenical poisoning, were made critically ill today by partaking of food, in which the police declare, arsenic had been placed. It is doubtful whether they will recover.

Frank Mette, the father of the family, died last Saturday, and Mrs. Mary Mette, his wife, died April 6. Three other members of the family were also made ill, and are now in the hospital. Of those remaining in the house three sons today were poisoned by eating oatmeal, which had been brought into the house since the father of the family died. It is believed that a plot exists to poison the entire family, but so far no clew has been obtained to the person who placed the poison in the food.

Bitten By Spider.

Through blood poisoning caused by a spider bite, John Washington of Bosqueville, Tex., would have lost his leg, which became a mass of running sores, had he not been persuaded to try Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes: "The first application relieved, and four boxes healed all the sores." Heals every sore. 25c at R. R. Bellamy, druggist.

Senator Foraker seems to be confident that he can rock the boat with Secretary Taft in Ohio.

RAILROAD GAINS TIME.

Illinois Suit Thrown Out of Supreme Court.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Springfield, Ill., April 17.—The Supreme Court today dismissed the suit of the State of Illinois against the Illinois Central for an accounting and recovery of the State's alleged share of gross receipts of the railroad.

The court gave leave to the attorney general to withdraw the suit and file it either in the Circuit or Superior Courts, thus making it optional with the attorney general whether he shall institute proceedings in Chicago or Springfield.

Chief Justice Scott announced that the court was divided as to whether the suit involved revenue within the meaning of the State constitution, and the court, therefore, in its discretion, decided not to assume jurisdiction.

Assistant Attorney General Dempsey said that the suit would be preemptorily refiled either in the Circuit Court at Springfield or in the Superior Court at Chicago. Today's dismissal will delay final action on the suit probably a year or two.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Asheville's fifth annual horse show opened Tuesday afternoon under flattering auspices, with a record breaking and enthusiastic attendance.

—At Charlotte on Tuesday night, fourteen young doctors were graduated in medicine at the commencement of the North Carolina Medical College.

—The Corporation Commission at Raleigh on Tuesday announced that beginning with Sunday there will go into effect at New Bern the connection ordered between the Norfolk and Southern, and the Atlantic Coast Line.

—Rutherford College, April 16: Former students of the college have erected a monument to the late Dr. R. L. Aebrnethy, who was for many years at the head of the institution. The unveiling will take place on the 15th of May, which is commencement day.

—High Point, April 16: In the election here today for bonds to the amount of $125,000, the measure carried by a good majority, less than 25 votes being cast against it. Seventy-five thousand of the amount is for city improvements and fifty thousand for the Randolph and Cumberland Railroad.

—At Raleigh on Tuesday the Secretary of State chartered the Trenton Buggy and Manufacturing Company, of Trenton, Jones county. The object is to manufacture, sell and deal in buggies, carriages, wagons, etc. The authorized capital stock is $50,000, with $3,000 subscribed. The incorporators are Messrs. S. Barker, R. L. May and T. D. Warren.

—Burlington, April 16: Late last night a telegram was received here by Mrs. T. W. Patterson announcing that her son, Ernest Patterson, aged 20 years, was killed in a railroad wreck in Ohio yesterday. Particulars were not given and so far have not been received. They are prominent people of the town. The remains will reach here tomorrow for next day for interment.

—Statesville, April 16: The notorious Fan Gillespie, one of the negroes charged with being implicated in the murder of the Lyerly family in Rowan county last Summer, but who was discharged for lack of evidence, was before Mayor Steele yesterday for cursing and fighting. There were two cases against the woman and she was fined $7.10 in each case. It is not generally known to our people that this unsavory character has been a resident of Statesville since her trial.

—Asheville, April 16: An organization has been perfected here of what is known as the Waynesville Railway and Power Company with Col. S. A. Jones, of Waynesville, as president, and Gen. Theodore F. Davidson, of Asheville, chief counsel. The purpose of the organization is to construct a competing line of railway through western North Carolina from the Tennessee coal fields. Col. Jones has been at work on this scheme for years. A number of strong men financially in this section have become stockholders in the proposed railway. It is believed in some quarters that something will eventually come of the plan.

—Asheville, April 16: The local lodge of Elks has submitted to the directors and stockholders of the Asheville Auditorium Company, owner of the big convention hall and play house on Haywood street, to take over the property, maintain it as a place of amusement and for convention purposes and also expend $6,000 on the structure and utilize it as an Elks temple. The auditorium property is worth between $40,000 and $50,000, although it has not been a financial success. The directors and stockholders are considering the proposition, and if a majority of the stockholders will agree to a transfer the Elks will take control.

—Charlotte, April 16: The Business Men's Municipal League has won a complete and sweeping victory over the Citizens' Democratic League in a very warm and hard fought municipal primary campaign which closed tonight at 8 o'clock. The Business Men's League was organized by young business men of the city to elect if possible a Board of Aldermen of 21 members and a Board of School Commissioners composed of business men strictly. The Citizens' League was composed almost entirely of prohibition voters ,who claimed that the Business Men's League was in fact a movement looking to the ultimate downfall of prohibition. It is needless to state that the Business Men's League denied this charge vehemently. A very heated campaign was the result of division in Democratic ranks. Mayor S. S. McNinch is renominated without opposition. There are several candidates on the successful ticket endorsed by the losing side; also there may be a varying estimate of the result made by opposing sides. The Citizens' League is interested principally in the action of the newly nominated Board of Aldermen in electing a Recorder to succeed F. M. Shannonhouse who is a candidate for reelection. The primary today is equivalent to an election under the existing primary law in Mecklenburg county. The vote is estimated at about three to two in favor of the Business Men's League.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 17.—The cotton market was lower today owing to rains in the Southewst and liquidation by recent buyers. The close was steady but at a net decline of 6 to 12 points. Sales of the day were estimated at 150,000 bales. The market opened barely steady at an advance of one point on April but generally 3 to 4 points lower in response to Liverpool cables and the weather map showing general rains over the South. The firmness of April was due to only one transaction, but served to check bear pressure at the opening and the market eased off gradually under scattering liquidation until the prices showed a net loss of about 9 to 12 points, following the liberal estimates for tomorrow's receipts and the detailed reports from the belt showing that the drouth in Texas had been pretty thoroughly broken. But fear of near month manipulation prevented aggressiveness on the part of the local bears and during the middle session the market ruled quiet and steady at prices 3 to 4 points up from the lowest, yielding again toward the close to light local selling for both accounts. Last prices were at practically the low point of the session. English futures were under expectations but spot sales continued full and Southern spot markets were generally unchangd. The wet weather in the Southwest was the main factor, with precipitation in Texas ranging from about 1-2 to 2 1-10 inches.

Receipts at the ports today, 20,344 bales, against 12,772 last week and 17,631 last year. For the week, 95,000 bales, against 103,094 last week and 97,555 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 3,589, against 7,563 last year, and at Houston, 5,247 bales, against 2,863 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet five points lower; middling uplands 11.10; middling gulf 11.35; sales 66 bales.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

By Wire to The Morning Star

New York, April 17.—The dry goods market showed a better tone for the day. Many buyers from retail and jobibng houses are in the market. Quite a cut in prices is noted in made-up white waists with lace and embroidered effects at first hands. Silks, piece goods and ribbon houses are declining further orders at current prices because of the excited condition of raw silks and the well-sold condition of mills. Underwear and hosiery agents are endeavoring to secure higher prices for Spring, 1908. Heavy brown cottons are quiet, printcloths are firm at an advance of 1-16c for spot goods.

PEACE AMONG ALL PEOPLES

GREAT BANQUET AT WALDORF

Notable Event With Speeches By British Ambassador, Governor-General of Canada and Other Distinguished Men.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 17.—The first convention of the National Arbitration and Peace Congress came to an end tonight after a three days' session with two large banquets, one at the Hotel Astor and the other at the Waldorf-Astoria. The event of greatest interest was the decoration of Andrew Carnegie with the Cross of the Legion of Honor by the French government represented by Baron D'Estournelles de Constant in appreciation of his work for peace and his gift of the palace at The Hague.

Baron D'Estournelles Constant announced in his address at the Waldorf-Astoria banquet that the Cross of Commander of the Ligion of Honor had been conferred by the French government on Andrew Carnegie and then proceeded to the banquet at the Hotel Astor where the decorations were formally presented to Mr. Carnegie.

New oYrk, April 17.—Peace among all peoples, a peace that would be lasting, if not, indeed, eternal—that was the ideal raised aloft, to be followed by all nations, by the speakers tonight at the dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, arranged to close the deliberations of the peace congress.

The American flag hung from the wall at the head of the dining apartment, and around it were suspended the flags of the other nations with here and there banners bearing the coats of arms of the countries that will take part in the Hague Conference and that have taken an active part through their citizens in the present congress. The floral decorations on the tables were roses and carnations.

After a reception in the Astor gallery, the 600 guests, who included both men and women, passed into the banquet room. As the company entered the hall, Kremser's "Old Netherland's hymn of Thanks" was sung by the choral members of the Trubinstein Club. The singers, all young women, stood in the upper balcony and while singing they waved the flags of all the nations. Then while the guests were seating, the chorus rendered the "peace festival hymn." Spectators occupied the boxes in the balconies and by the time the speaking began every convenience for listening to the address had been taxed.

Former Mayor Seth Low, of New York, the presiding officer at the dinner, was attended by those who had been requested to speak. The speakers included Ambassador James Bryce, of Great Britain; Earl Gray, Governor General of Canana, and Professor Kuno Francke, of Harvard University.

A feature of the dinner was the decoration of the various tables by countries and States to represent the association of all nations sitting in harmony.

The national costumes of some of the foreign delegates were strongly contrasted with the usual coloring found in the American dress, suggesting the international meaning of the occasion. The brilliant gold brocaded coats of two educational delegates from India, as well as their gold striped turbans, contrasted with the dress of the delegates from China and seemed to emphasize the rich coloring of the banquet room.

The reading of cablegrams from foreign rulers opened the exercises.

From the King of Norway came this message: "I beg you to bring my best greeting to the National Arbitration and Peace Congress, whose work I hope may promote the great purpose of advocating the peaceful settlement of international misunderstandings, a purpose in which the Norwegian people take such a lively interest."

The King of Italy sent this message: "Cordial thanks for the courtesy of your invitation! The good things which the arbitration and peace congress promises by the illustrious benefactors of humanity in it should be able to bring to pass, notably and speedily, the realization of their highest ideals."

The President of Switzerland cabled the following: "I am very happy for this opportunity to assure you of the interest I have in the work in which the congress is engaged and to express to you my most sincere wishes for the success of your work."

At the morning session, held in Carnegie Hall, the peace conference adopted its platform or resolutions, recommending, among other things, hereafter be a permanent institution; that The Hague Court shall be open to all the nations of the world; that a general treaty of arbitration for raification by all the nations shall be drafted by the coming conference, providing for the reference to The Hague Court of international disputes which cannot be adjusted by diplomacy, that the United States government urge upon the conference action looking to the limitation of armament that the conference extend to private property at sea, immunity from capture in war. The resolution speaks highly in praise of President Roosevelt, Secretary Root and the Prime Minister of Great Britain for the stand they have taken in favor of a settled policy of peace among the nations.

The resolutions were dapoted with a few minor changes as to wording just as they came from the committee, which had had their preparation in charge. There was a debate, continuing over two hours, however. Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood, of Washington, declared that the speakers on the platform were "trying to have it all their own way." Among the participants in the debate today was William J. Bryan. He was very brief.

"I came here to see that the one idea, which I regard as the most important of all, was carried out, and that was that all disputes, not subject to adjustment by diplomacy, should be referred to international arbitration. This has been incorporated in the resolutions just as it was adopted by the Inter-Parliamentary Union in London last July, when 26 nations were represented. I regard this as a long step toward the elimination of war."

The resolutions were adopted unanimously

Before the morning session adjourned a resolution was adopted naming the following trustees, who shall have power to add to their numbers to collect funds for the promotion of international peace and to disburse such funds in their discretion through existing or new agencies: Andrew Carnegie, George Foster Peabody, James Speyer, Seth Low, Robert Treat Paine, of Boston, and Joshua L. Bailey, of Philadelphia.

Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session of the congress, Mrs. Helen Beach Tillotson and Richmond P. Hobson walked on the stage bearing a peace flag which they were commissioned to present to Mr. Carnegie on behalf of the Daughters of the Revolution now in session in Washington. It is the Stars and Stripes set in a field of white, with the Angel of Peace surmounting the staff from which floats a streamer bearing the inscription in gold on a field of white "Peace to All Nations." After the presentation of the flag, Seth Low, chairman of the meeting, spoke briefly, and introduced Congressman Richard Bartholdt, of Missouri, chairman of the American group of the Inter-parliamentary Union. His subject was "The Inter-parliamentary Plan."

While Congressman Bartholdt was in the middle of his speech a sudden burst of applause from the gallery interrupted him. It was occasioned by the entrance of William Jennings Bryan. The applause lasted for half a minute, and a few minutes later a hearty round of applause following the mention of President Roosevelt's name by the speaker.

John W. Foster, former Secretary of State and representative of China at the coming Hague Conference, spoke on the "Growth of International Legislation.

"Bolivar's Prophesy, International Arbitration," was the subject of Senor Diego Mendoza, former Minister of Colombia to the United States.

William Jennings Bryan was the last speaker of the session. When he was introduced the audience applauded wildly, and it was some minutes before he could proceed. During his address he was frequently interrupted by applause. In conclusion he said: "War comes from misunderstandings. At the finish both parties will tell you that it was a defensive war. When they will spbmit to having a thorough understanding of their grievances, war can be averted.

"I believe one of the subjects of this convention is to cultivate peace and to dispel the idea that man must die in the battlefield to be a patriot. And this convention will not do its duty unless it impresses upon the world the idea that it is as much a man's duty to live for his country as it is to die for it.

"I expect to see the world loved into peace. Love is the great force. Don't tell me that to secure peace you must build great armies and navies. I want to see peace by love and not by force."

Night Session.

Another banquet was given tonight at the Hotel Astor where Andrew Carnegie presided over tables where upward of 700 guests were seated.

The flags of the nations were the most prominent feature of the decorations, but each silken banner was mounted upon a broader field of white—the emblem of peace which has been so conspicuous throughout the sessions which ended tonight. The dinner began at 7:30 o'clock and it was shortly after 10 when Mr. Carnegie mounted the speaker's rostrum to introduce Earl Grey, Governor General of Canada, as the first speaker of the evening. As the Earl was making a bow in acknowledgment of the applause which greeted him, there came a roll of drums and flare of trumpets.

"That," said the speaker, "sounds very much like a military note." When the laughter had subsided Earl Grey proceeded with his address, being constantly interrupted by applause especially when referring to the friendly relations existing between America and England and to Secretary Root's recent visit to Canada. Earl Grey concluded by reading a telegram he had received this evening from the Speaker of the Canadian Senate as follows:

"A Canadian group of members of Parliament numbering 150 was formed this morning and have joined the Inter-parliamentary Union for peace. They send greetings to their American cousins who are working toward the same end."

Mr. Carnegie introduced Don Enrique Creel, the Mexican Ambassador, who expressed the regrets of President Diaz at not being able to attend the congress. At the conclusion of his address Ambassador Creel proposed through Mr. Carnegie a toast to the President of the United States. It was drunk standing and amid cheers.

In introducing Ambassador James Bryce, of Great Britain, Mr. Carnegie declared:

"He is a man before whom it is useless for us to try to hide our faults or to expose our many virtues. He knows them all."

Mr. Bryce was not able to proceed for some moments because of the applause.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie, who is president of the peace congress, tonight gave out a statement as to the results of the congress just closed. Although not so designated by Mr. Carnegie, the statement constitutes a reply to some of the suggestions contained in the letter which President Roosevelt addressed to the congress on its opening day. Mr. Carnegie quotes these statements as "objections" and proceeded to answer them as follows:

"Our peace conference has brought three objections clearly before us.

"First—If nations cannot submit all qustions to arbitration. Answer: Six of them have recently done so by treaty—Denmark and the Netherlands, Chile and Argentina, Norway and Sweden.

"Second—Justice higher than peace. Answer: The first principle of natural justice forbids men to be judges when they are parties to the issue. All law rests upon this throughout the civilized world. Were a judge known to sit upon a case in which he was secretly interested he would be dishonored and expelled from his high office. If any individual refused to submit his dispute with a neighbor to disinterested parties (arbitrators or judges) and insisted upon being his own judge he would violate the first principles of justice. If he resorted to force in defense of his right to judge he would be dishonored as a breaker of the law. Thus peace with justice is secured through arbitration, either by court or by tribunal, never by one of the parties sitting as judge in his own case.

"Third—It is neither peace nor justice but righteousness that shall exalt the nation. Answer: Righteousness is simply doing what is right. What is just is always right; what is unjust is always wrong. It being the first principle of justice that men shall not be judges in their own cause to refuse to submit to judge or arbitrator is unjust, hence not right, for the essence of righteousness is justice. Therefore, men who place justice or righteousness above peace practically proclaim, as it appears to me, that they will commit injustice and discard righteousness by constituting themselves sole judges of their own cause in violation of law, justice and right.

"Civilized man has reached the conclusion that he meets the claims of justice and of right only by upholding the present reign of law. Our pressing duty is to extend its benignant reign to combinations of men called nations. What is right for each individual must be right for the nation. The union of law and justice ensuring peace and good will among men through disinterested tribunals, is the 'righteousness which exalteth a nation.' The demand that interested parties shall sit in judgment is the wickedness that degrades a nation."

GREAT QUAKES IN WEST MEXICO

Details Show That Destruction of Life and Property Was Enormous.

NUMBER OF DEAD UNKNOWN

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Mexico City, April 17.—Details of the destruction wrought by the great earthquakes of last Sunday are reaching this city already. A message from Acapulco today confirmed the story of the total destruction of Ayutla. The jail and hospital collapsed but the prisoners and the patients were taken out safely.

Factories throughout the district are in ruins and thousands of workmen will suffer greatly from the loss of their homes and enforced idleness. The postoffice, telegraph office and barracks at Ayutla were totally destroyed.

Seleians college in Santa Julia, which was suuposed to have been earthquake proof, collapsed. The roof above the second floor fell in when seventy students were in the building. Although the structure practically fell to pieces not one of the students was injured. Many of the students were left clinging to the beams. The teachers, with a number of pupils, had left the building. After the shock a search was made of the ruins, and those within the building taken out. In collapsing, the roof was supported on one side by beams, leaving a space where many of the students found means of escaping death or injury.

The death list continues to grow. Among the dead are many members of prominent Mexican families. In the State of Guerraro and elsewhere along the Pacific coast the greatest property loss occurred. In the vicinity of this city severe loss was suffered by the Mexican Clay Manufacturing Company, an American concern. The damage to the company's works will amount to $50,000. No great damage was done in Mexico City.

DOCTOR DID'T KILL WIFE.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Greensboro, N. C., April 17.—It developed today that the report from Liberty, N. C., last night that Dr. R. B. Patterson, of that place had killed his wife, was wholly untrue. The story, it seems, was concocted by some enemy of the doctor, and spread broadcast. Liberty is twenty miles from Greensboro.
